SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15. White Lepers in San Francisco.

A PEST BROUGHT FROM CHINA-VISIT TO AN AF-The alarming fact that leprosy does exist to some extent among white persons in San Francisco was only discovered about one week ago. The majority of our best and oldest resident physicians have never heard of a case of white leprosy in this city with the exception of that of Asia Bates, formerly Register in Bankruptcy, who died about three years ago. He contracted the disease in the Sandwich Islands, and therefore the presence of the Chinese has not alarmed the doctors in regard to this curse. They have yet to learn that there are several white lepers in our midst who have caught the afflction from the Chinese. Hearing that such was the case a Mail reporter yesterday called on a physician, who, he was informed, had been treating three cases of white leprosy within a week. The doctor admitted that he had three cases of leprosy under his care at the present time. He said that a white woman, the first patient, came to him a week ago. She had been suffering for the last two years, and spots had broken out all over her body. On Thursday last a man called at his office and stated that he had been afflicted with leprosy for eighteen months, and would like to have some medicine to ameliorate his sufferings. VISITING A LEPER.

The doctor informed him that the disease was incurable, but gave him some drug to relieve the itching. The doctor described the man as an intelligent fellow, and the reporter, learning his address, immediately visited him. About half a mile on the San Bruno road a attle log hut, corresponding to the description furnished, was espied standing alone in a large open field. After several loud knocks the door of the hut was opened by a short, thick set, dark-complexioned man, with long, black shaggy hair and coarse, flowing whiskers. On his forehead and around his nose were large black spots, with scales resembling those of a fish. His hands also were spotted and three of the joints on the left hand had already rotted off. He was dressed in a dark rough suit, and his left foot was encased in a leather bandage. When he learned who is visitor as he looked very much astonished, and after surveying the reporter for a minute he made a hasty step backward and said :- "Surely, sir, you have made a mistake; you can have no business with me." It was some time before the man could be convinced that the reporter had not made a mistake, but finally, after much urging, he came out, when the following conversation took

REPORTER—Is your name Allen?
ALLEN—It is sir. What do you wish? REPORTER-you called at the office of Dr .--- last Thursday and asked to be treated for leprosy, ALLEN-Yes, sir.

REPORTER-Are you sure that you are afflicted ALLEN-Yes; I have been to see several physicians in the city and they all say I have the worst form of leprosy and cannot live long. REPORTER-How long have you had the de-ALLEN-Well, it has been out on my body about eighteen months. REPORTER—Do you live alone here?

ALLEN—Yes; I have lived here by myself ever since I knew that I had it.

REPORTER.—Have you no friends? ALLEN-Oh, yes; I have a wife and a family of two children, but I never go near them, be cause I do not wish them to catch the disease. Sometimes, when I am watching on the street in town, my children see me and I have to run to get away from them. It is very hard for me to do it, but I would do anything rather than have them to catch it. They do not know where I am, but I keep track of and do all I can for

REPORTER-What is your business? ALLEN-Before I got this I used to go to sea. REPORTER-Do you know how you caught the

CAUGHT FROM THE CHINESE. ALLEN-I am not positive, but I think I do, put it down to the Chinese. You see, when I returned from my last cruise I went on a spree and woke up the next morning in a Chinese REPORTER-Had you ever been in a Chinese house previous to that time?

ALLEN-No, I never was, and I would not had been in then only for my spree. REPORTER-Have you been living with your family since that time? ALLEN-No; my family were not here then, and as soon as I found that I had the leprosy I resolved that they never should see me again.

ROTTING AWAY. REPORTER-Do you suffer any pain? ALLEN-No; there is no pain, only an itching sensation, The worst thing about it is that I know that I am slowly rotting away and cannot help myself.

REPORTER-Why do you have your left foot wrapped in a leather bandage? ALLEN-Because it is decaying faster than the other and I cannot bear a shoe on it. With a pair of pinchers I could take every toe off my foot without feeling any pain.

The reporter, after offering a few words of consolation, which fell unheeded upon the ears of the unhappy wretch, withdrew and left him alone in his misery. There is another case of white leprosy on Kearny street, between Jackson and Pacific. This man is broken out with scales, principally about the throat, and he claims to have caught it from Chinese cigars.

Important Discovery.

Whaling Captain Falls in with Esquimanx who possess relies of Sir John Franklin.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 .- Thomas Barrett, of the whale bark Houghton, lost in Hudson Bay in June, 1876, has arrived here the other day with a silver spoon bearing Sir John Franklin's crest, which he obtained from an Esquimaux Indian. The latter told Barrett that the ship from which the spoon was obtained was crushed by ice at an island near Cape Hallowell, and that the natives took the crew near Cape Englefield, and kept them until one by one they perished from cold, Barrett says that the natives about his winter The beneficial results of Sulphur Baths are too well known to require comment. The effects of GLENN'S SUL-PHUR SOAP in the bath, are truly electrical, completely deodorizing offensive accumulations and thoroughly purifying the entire surface of the body. In fact it is quarters at Marble Island had two other spoons, one with the Franklin crest and the other having "S. S. S." engraved on it. These were pur chased by the United States Consul at St. John. The King of Soaps for Bathing The Esquimaux say the vessel became a total wreck, that Franklin was with them, and they recognized him as leader. The white men who Directions.—For Diseases of the Skin bathe freely and apply a thick lather before retiring, allowing it to remain over night.—For Scalds and Burns apply the lather freely to the affected parts, and the fire and pain will be removed immedidied were buried side by side.

The most important fact they communicated was that this crew of whites left a lot of books with writing on them, which were also buried at Englefield. This spot is about 900 miles inland, and has not yet been reached by any exploring parties. It is proposed to fit out an expedition from New York in the Spring to secure the records.
